

What is the Work Opportunity Tax Credit?

The Work Opportunity Tax Credit (WOTC) is a Federal tax credit available to employers for hiring individuals from certain target groups who have consistently faced significant barriers to employment.

Employers claimed $5.3 billion in tax credits in 2018 from the WOTC program. Between 10-15% of all new hires may qualify.

How Much Can I Save?

Employers can earn a tax credit from $100 to $9,600 per qualified employee, depending on the target group of the new employee and number of hours worked in the first year. Employees must work at least 120 hours in the first year of employment.

WOTC Savings Example:

Company Size: 250 Employees
 Annual New Hires: 100
 Qualifying Percentage: 15%
 Potential Annual WOTC Savings: $36,000
(Based on average of $2,400 per qualified employee).*

Which Employees Are Eligible?

- Qualified Veterans
- SNAP (food stamp) Recipients
- TANF Recipients
- Designated Community Residents
- Vocational Rehabilitation Referrals
- Ex-felons
- Supplemental Security Income Recipients
- Long-Term Unemployed

What Does CMS Do?
